

What Clear channel Comm. has done with radio is a disgrace. They are censoring their national playlists to only include what they "know" people will want to hear. There is no originality on the radio and no way of local artists getting airtime. Stop them now. Please.